"It was like 2 weeks ago like the 21 I think. I had to leave class because there was possible exposure with my roommate, and so I got tested twice that day. They both came back negative. Then, the next day I started show symptoms and then I waited until that Thursday to get tested here, and it came out positive. I had a sore throat, I could barely talk, I lost my voice for a couple of day, I did run a fever and all that, and now it's hard to catch my breath sometimes because of dance and everything. I have to do breathing treatments now. Then, it's off and on with body aches and good days. "

{VO}

THE DANCE DEPARTMENT
QUARANTINED FROM SEP. 21-25.
STUDENTS DID THEIR CLASSES
THROUGH ZOOM FROM HOME.
THE MAJORITY OF THE DEPARTMENT RETURNED IN-PERSON ON SEP. 28, BUT SOME STUDENTS LIKE MAR STAYED HOME BECAUSE OF COVID.

{SOT}

("0:43")

"Well obviously my roommate has nowhere else to go, so we can't use the living room as a dance space because I have COVID and he has been testing negative, so that I don't get him sick, we have been using our bedrooms in our apartment. And I'd say I have like a 15 by 18 foot space in my room. I just pushed everything to the side. It is hard because it's carpet and not hardwood floor or something. The teacher's are really nice about like they know our situation they know what we're going through. It's definitely different, there's still people in class, so it's a hard challenge between people on zoom and in class.
